IF YOU HAVE A DISABILITY:

Your landlord may not:

- 1) Refuse to let you make reasonable modifications to your dwelling or common use areas, at your expense, if necessary for the handicapped person to use the housing. (Where reasonable, the landlord may permit changes only if you agree to restore the property to its original condition when you move).
- 2) Refuse to make reasonable accommodations in rules, policies, practices, or services if necessary for the handicapped person to use the housing. However, housing need not be made available to a person who is a direct threat to the health or safety of others or who currently uses illegal drugs.

MEDINA COUNTY PROHIBITS DISCRIMINATION ON THE BASIS OF:

- Familial Status
- Creed
- Marital Status
- National Origin
- Military Status
- Race or Color
- Sex
- Age
- Disability
- Religion

DID YOU KNOW?

- Signing a lease enters the tenant and the landlord into a business deal that carries rights and responsibilities.
- Tenants are responsible for following the lease agreement. Tenants should read the entire lease agreement and ask questions about any unclear terms in the lease.
- A landlord must give 24-hours' notice to enter the apartment.
- A landlord has 30 days from the time the tenant moves out to return the security deposit or provide an itemized deduction list for excessive cleaning or repairs that were needed.
